Welcome

Welcome to the Journey

I don’t speak about recovery because I studied it. I speak about it because I lived it.

For more than twenty years, addiction and shame had the final word in my story. I know what it feels like to wake up exhausted, to make promises to God I couldn’t keep, and to believe the loudest voice in the room was the one telling me I was defined by my worst mistakes.

Nothing changed until I stopped trying to manage my wreckage and started surrendering it. I learned that an affirmation without Scripture is just a hopeful guess, but a biblical affirmation is you agreeing with what God has already said is true.

This 7-day starter kit is your first step. It’s taken directly from Week 1 of Sacred Steps to Redemption. You don’t have to feel any different on Day 1. You only need to be willing to hear another voice and let it speak longer than the shame has.

Let’s take the next step together.

How It Works

The Sacred S.T.E.P. Method™

Every day in this journey follows a simple, intentional rhythm. Recovery doesn’t need to be complicated to be real.

S — Scripture
One verse establishing what God’s Word actually says.

T — Truth
The lie you’ve been carrying, replaced with biblical truth.

E — Embrace
A personal, first-person affirmation to declare over your life.

P — Practice
One small, concrete Sacred Step you can take today.

Read slowly. Say the affirmation out loud. Take the step.

Tip: the lines on each day’s page aren’t decoration. Write badly if you need to. Honest beats polished.

Week 1

I Am Chosen

Theme: Identity — Who God Says I Am

For a long time, I believed I had to earn a place at the table. This week is about unlearning that. Being chosen was never about your performance. It was God’s decision, made before your first mistake.

Seven days. Seven small steps. Go slowly.

DAY 1

The Foundation of Being Chosen

S — SCRIPTURE

“But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.” (1 Peter 2:9, KJV)

T — TRUTH

Being chosen was never about earning it — it was about God’s initiative, not your performance.

E — EMBRACE (say it out loud)

I am chosen by God, not because of what I have done, but because of who He is. My past does not disqualify me from His calling on my life.

P — PRACTICE

Write down one lie you’ve believed about being “not chosen,” and cross it out today.

In my own words:

Write what God is showing you today.

DAY 2

Pursued Before I Pursued Him

S — SCRIPTURE

“Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit.” (John 15:16, KJV)

T — TRUTH

I didn’t find God first. He pursued me long before I turned around.

E — EMBRACE (say it out loud)

I am not chasing after worth I have to prove. God chose me before I ever chose Him, and that settles the question of my value.

P — PRACTICE

Say out loud, “God chose me,” before you leave the house today.

In my own words:

Write what God is showing you today.

DAY 3

Decided Before the World Began

S — SCRIPTURE

"According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love." (Ephesians 1:4, KJV)

T — TRUTH

My identity was decided before my worst season ever started.

E — EMBRACE (say it out loud)

I am chosen from before the foundation of the world — my hardest year does not override a decision God made before I existed.

P — PRACTICE

Read Ephesians 1 slowly and underline every phrase that describes who you are in Christ.

In my own words:

Write what God is showing you today.

DAY 4

Called by Name, Not by Record

S — SCRIPTURE

“But now thus saith the LORD that created thee… Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.” (Isaiah 43:1, KJV)

T — TRUTH

God knows my name — not just my record.

E — EMBRACE (say it out loud)

I am called by name, not by my mistakes. I belong to God, and nothing in my past changes whose I am.

P — PRACTICE

Write your own name in the margin of your Bible or journal next to this verse today.

In my own words:

Write what God is showing you today.

DAY 5

Clothed in Mercy

S — SCRIPTURE

“Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering.” (Colossians 3:12, KJV)

T — TRUTH

Being chosen changes how I’m allowed to treat myself, not just how I treat others.

E — EMBRACE (say it out loud)

I am God’s elect, clothed in mercy and kindness — including mercy toward myself on the days I fall short.

P — PRACTICE

Extend yourself one act of kindness today that you’d normally withhold.

In my own words:

Write what God is showing you today.

DAY 6

Set Apart Today

S — SCRIPTURE

“For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself.” (Deuteronomy 7:6, KJV)

T — TRUTH

Being chosen isn’t a one-time event from the past. It’s a present reality.

E — EMBRACE (say it out loud)

I am set apart for God’s purposes today, not because I am flawless, but because He has claimed me as His own.

P — PRACTICE

Name one habit that doesn’t match “set apart,” and choose differently just once today.

In my own words:

Write what God is showing you today.

DAY 7

The Peace of Knowing

S — SCRIPTURE

“Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.” (1 Thessalonians 1:4, KJV)

T — TRUTH

Knowing I am chosen isn’t pride. It’s the peace that ends the arguing.

E — EMBRACE (say it out loud)

I know, beloved, that I am chosen of God. That knowledge is the ground I stand on when doubt tries to pull me under.

P — PRACTICE

Thank God specifically, out loud, for choosing you before you go to sleep tonight.

In my own words:

Write what God is showing you today.

Keep Walking

The Monthly Transformation Checklist

Recovery isn’t a sprint; it’s a sustained walk. Use this checklist at the end of every month (or whenever you need to reset) to make sure you aren’t just reading the words, but letting them renew your mind.

DAILY RHYTHM

- [ ] Read Slowly: Did I sit with today’s Scripture longer than it took to just read it?
- [ ] Speak It Out: Did I say my Affirmation out loud at least once today?
- [ ] Take the Step: Did I complete my one small, concrete Sacred Step?

MINDSET & RENEWAL

- [ ] Name the Voice: When the shame-voice spoke this week, did I pause and name it for what it is?
- [ ] Answer with Truth: Did I answer the shame-voice with my monthly Theme Scripture?
- [ ] Honest Journaling: Did I write down my honest struggles on the page without filtering them?

COMMUNITY & SUPPORT

- [ ] Stay Connected: Did I attend a meeting, talk to my sponsor, or connect with my recovery group this week?
- [ ] Share the Burden: Did I tell one safe person what I am actually struggling with?
- [ ] Be a Witness: Did I share one small piece of my testimony or encouragement with someone else?

END OF MONTH REVIEW

- [ ] Look Back: What is one specific way my mindset has shifted since Day 1 of this month?
- [ ] Release a Lie: What is one false label I am ready to leave behind this month?
- [ ] Celebrate the Step: What is one “small thing” I did this month that I shouldn’t minimize?
- [ ] Prepare for Next: What is the theme for next month, and what do I need to surrender to walk into it?

> ! — IF IT GETS HEAVY
>
> If something on these pages stirs up more than you can hold alone, pause. Close the book and call your sponsor, your counselor, or someone safe. The 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline is available 24/7. Taking a break is not quitting. It’s wisdom.

Next Step

You’ve Taken the First Step. Now Keep Walking.

These 7 days are just the foundation. Your past is part of your story, but it does not define who God created you to become.

If this starter kit brought you peace, clarity, or a moment of hope, imagine what 365 days of this renewal can do for your mind, your faith, and your freedom.
